

COMMUNITY RELATIONS

Policy Statement

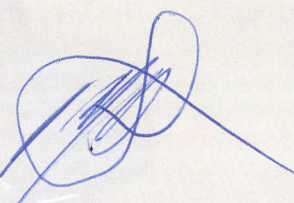

SheffieldResources

Policy : October 2016

Sheffield Resources embraces its social responsibility in the communities in which we operate. We aspire to be a valued and supported member of the community and are committed to building mutually beneficial relationships.

Sheffield will:

- communicate in a clear, transparent and objective manner;
- engage and collaborate with the communities including local organisation and Aboriginal groups to identify community needs;
- acknowledge and respect the cultural values, traditions and beliefs of Aboriginal people in the local communities;
- partner with the communities to deliver benefits through development initiatives; and
- foster business partnerships, alliances and economic opportunities that generate mutual and sustainable benefits in the communities in which we operate.

Bruce McFadzean
Managing Director